"Gabriel S. Youngwood announces the removal of his offices to Suite 198-198A in the Metropolitan Building, where he will continue the general practice of law."

Council of Jewish Women Annual Luncheon.

More than 100 women, members and friends of the Council of Jewish Women were entertained Monday with an elaborate luncheon at Joseph's. Floral decorations of beauty ornamented the long tables, and clever speeches and music were included in the program.

Mrs. J. Goldgraber, retiring president, who made an efficient and gracious toastmistress, announced the various numbers with a verse.

Musical selections were given by Sam S. Losh, W. J. Marsh and Mrs. Ed Kriss. Members of the council were presented with banks in the shape of an alarm clock which they were asked to fill before next council meeting. At the close of the luncheon the members sang the council hymn led by Mrs. Dan Brown with Mrs. Louis Morris at the piano.

The new officers installed were: Mrs. H. I. Pincus, president; Mrs. C. S. Welsch, first vice resident; Mrs. Arthur Simon, second vice-president; Mrs. H. H. Miller, third vice-president; Mrs. I. E. Horwitz, recording secretary; Mrs. M. Gernsbacher, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. N. E. Rubin, treasurer.

Mrs. Goldgraber, retiring president announced that she had been able to raise $130 for the council work. A handsome piece of lingerie was awarded to Mrs. B. B. Samuels as prize in a contest.

There will be a meeting of the Miriam Club at Temple Beth-El Centre, Sunday afternoon, May 15, at 3 o'clock. Important business to be discussed. All members urged to attend.

NOTICE!

After this the Jewish Monitor will print notices of dances and other affairs free, only when given by bona-fide organizations engaging in charitable, philanthropic, or civic work. Private clubs or private organizations giving affairs for private gain only, will be charged advertising rates for all notices.

The Jewish Monitor is glad to act as a medium for the dissemination of news of interest to the Jewish community, but it finds itself imposed upon by organizations which exist for the purpose of deriving personal gain.

Let it be repeated that this doesn't pertain to any club, society, or institution, whose funds gained by social affairs are distributed to Charitable or Philanthropic agencies.

Mrs. J. Goldstein of 2209 Sixth avenue, was hostess to the Merry Wives' Bridge Club Wednesday afternoon, April 27. The high score prize was won by Mrs. Steinberg and the consolation by Mrs. H. Byrens. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Sam Rosen.

Zionist Meeting.

A successful meeting of the Fort Worth Zionist District was held Sunday, May 8th, at the Hebrew Institute. Israel N. Mehl, president of the district, presided at the meeting. Communication from the American Federation and from the Keren Hayesod were read by the secretary. A warm discussion followed, in which a majority of those present participated. The interest was especially keen when the speakers mentioned the name of Dr. Weitzmann, president of the World Organization, and Judge Mack, president of the American Zionist Organization.

Nomination and election of delegates to the next convention of the American Zionists, which will take place at Cleveland, Ohio, June 5th, was in order. Mr. Israel N. Mehl was selected to represent the Fort Worth District. Also a nomination committee for the Jewish Congress was selected. Rabbi E. A. Abramovitch and M. Shanblum being the committee chosen.

was highly interesting. Mrs. David Goldberg as leader calling for reports of committee chairmen for 1920. A feature of the "meeting" was the presentation of gifts to the "president." These included such necessary and ornamental articles as powder-puffs, boudoir vanities, flowers, huge "diamond" pins, etc.

The French veterans' "jazz band" program was a scream, and most original. Members of the band were correctly costumed in the blue of the French army—achieved by means of blue overalls, with war medals "impersonated" by teaspoons, tin can circles, etc. decorating the coats. Mrs. Louis Alpern, as band leader, displayed a generous assortment of medals. Members of the band who used kitchen utensils as instruments to great effect, included Mesdames I. A. Fine, Schack, Emden, Katz, L.

Cohen, Swatt, J. L. Art and Miss Elsie Cohen. Mrs. Art acted as accompanist. A number of selection were given.

The impersonation sketch of 'An Old Sweetheart of Mine' was very prettily done. Mrs. Charles Greenberg was assisted in this by Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Ginsberg and Mrs. Kruger, and the sketch was accompanied by the soft playing of "Love's Old Sweet Song," with Mrs. Al Horwitz at the piano. Mrs. Horwitz later featured in an impersonation of "Anna Eva Fake," with the proper sheeted habiliments, Mrs. Ben Kaufman presenting the psychic entertainer and reading questions to be answered. This diversion was very much applauded.

At the close of the program a second diversion, and one planned as a surprise, was created by the appearance of Miss Minnie Goldberg, dressed as a little "newsie" who brought in an issue of the "Council Record-News," a well-gotten-up sheet filled with funny stories and take-offs on the Council members. Mrs. Markowitz was responsible for this part of the program, which was highly enjoyed and marked the close of an exceptionally happy occasion.

Members and guests who were present at the luncheon included Mesdames J. L. Art, Alpern, Blank, S. Brettler, D. Brettler, Becker, J. Cohen, L. Cohen, E. Emden, I. A. Fine, Goldberg, Horwitz, Katsz, Kaufman, Kruger, P. Kleinman, Liepold, Levy, Lebenson, Lyons, Markowitz, Morantz, Pink, Paul, S. Riesenberger, Schlossberg, of Henrietta; Spitz, Swatt, Schack, Veras, A. B. Wolfson, Yuridin, Fisch, Emden, Karlsberg of Henrietta; Marks, M. S. Kaufman, Brettler, Greenberg, J. T. Carterm, Lieberman of Bowie; Persky, Smith, Zundelowitz, Klein, of Burkburnett, Gene Siegel, Silverman, Abe Marcus, Goldstucker, E. Kleinman of Dallas; Phil Kleinman, D. Capland, Tobolosky, and Misses Elsie Cohen, Lillie Goldberg, Eva Blank and Rose Levin of Fort Worth.

—The excellence of the cast, which includes such favorites as J. Frank Glendon, Kathlyn Williams, Jack Pratt and Bertram Grassby.

—Unusually lavish sets and beautiful scenes.

—The fact that a king's ransom was spent by the star for gowns especially designed by a leading New York modiste, to be worn in this production. Will make you want to see it.
